

Mikael Ribbenvik is Director General of the Swedish Migration Agency (SMA).

He holds a Master of Laws (LLM) from University of Lund, Sweden, and has 18 years of experience in the field of human rights and migration.

Mr Ribbenvik served as Director for Legal Affairs of the SMA between 2008 and 2013 responsible for internal jurisprudence. From 2013 to 2016 he was Director of Operations and Deputy Director General responsible for managing and improving standards of performance within the operation of the SMA.

He served as acting Director General of the Swedish Migration Agency (SMA) September 2016-May 2017.

Mikael Ribbenvik is also member of the Management Board of European Asylum Support Office (EASO), representing Sweden.